Y7 – Curriculum Map – What you are learning & when?

Key areas all learning is based around

- Ideas Knowledge & Understanding
- Recording & Observation
- Explore and experiment
- Analyse & Evaluate

So what about a career?
Illustrator, animator, graphic designer, architect, photographer, web designer, fashion, interior design, ceramics, product design, advertising, art therapy, app designer, film producer and many many more

Observational Drawing – M1 The Basics

Basic Drawing
Learning about why we study art and drawing through using the visual elements

- Why we study art
- Redrafting – Austin's Butterfly
- Visual elements
- Experimenting with dry media to draw
- Annotating using key words
- Redrafting drawings using feedback

TONE TEXTURE LINE

Painting techniques – M2 Colour Theory

Painting techniques
Learning to understand colour theory and apply to paintings

- Colour mixing skills
- Colour theory
- Painting techniques
- Artist inspiration Georgia O'Keeffe Alma Thomas
- Sketchbook presentation & annotation
- Creative colour wheel H/W

SPACE Colour

Ceramic techniques – M4 – Clay Alien

Ceramics
Learning to create clay alien family – collaborative art

- Learning clay skills
- Designing in 2D for 3D
- Form/Texture/Pattern
- Collaborative table teams
- 3D modelling
- PSHE – Families
- Artist analysis Yinka Shonibare

FORM PATTERN

Art History – Photography Collage & 3D – M5 Art History Ancient to Impressionism

Art History
Learning about history of artforms and art movements planning and creating own artworks inspired by artists

- Timeline overview
- Ancient art
- World Art
- Classical/Traditional Art
- Impressionism
- How to interpret and analyse artworks
- How to express own views and opinions

Art History – Mixed Media – M6 Art History Impressionism to Pop

Art History
Learning about the history of art forms & movements

- Abstract Expressionism – Kandinsky & Lee Millar – using music to create
- Surrealism - Hana Hoch inspired collages
- Pop Art –Andy Warhol Roy Lichtenstein
- Creating topical pop art piece based on current issues or interest in media

Art History – Mixed Media – M6 Art History 1950s – 1980s

Art History
Learning about the history of art forms & movements

- Black Arts Movement - Wadsworth Jarrell, Faith Ringold & Marie Johnson Calloway – Activist Art and Equality and Diversity
- Op art – Bridget Riley & Anwar Jalal Shemza – Creating optical illusion artworks
- Conceptual Art

Art History – Instillation Design – M7 – Contemporary Artforms

Art History
Learning about the history of artforms and art movements

- Young British Artists
- Instillation art – Yayoi Kusama
- Modern Architecture – Zaha Hadid
- Film and Audio – Marina Abramović and Zanele Muholi, Steve McQueen
- Group instillation design and presentation with 'Alternative Turner Prize Exhibition'

Year 7 - Formal Elements Explored

Artforms and Art Movements

Coming up next year…

Observational Drawing – M1 Self Portrait

Observational Drawing
Learning to draw a self portrait from observation

TONE LINE

Illustration & Collage – M2 Identity Burger

Paper collage
Learning to use cut paper to illustrate your likes

Colour SHAPE

Ceramic techniques – M3 Culture Cup

Ceramics
Learning to create clay cup based on your own culture

TEXTURE FORM

Graphic Design – M4 What do I Stand For?

- Learning about graphic & typography design
Learn typography to create powerful statements based on own HA & British Values

SPACE

Extended artwork

Painting techniques – M5 Portrait Painting Heroes & Role Models

Painting
Building on portrait drawing skills and applying painting techniques and colour palette to create a hero portrait to celebrate a role model

Colour

Printing & digital techniques – M6 Portrait Pattern Background

Printing & Digital

- Pattern history and techniques
- Polyblock printing
- PowerPoint/Photoshop image manipulation

pattern

Art History – Public Sculpture – M7 – Collaborative Community Art

Art History
Learning about the history of artforms and art movements

FORM SPACE

Year 8 - Identity – Me, My Culture, My Values, My Role Models & My Community